Transition schedule for Accreditation Standards for Assisted Reproductive Technology (ART) Centres from 1st Edition, March 2018 to 2nd Edition, November 2024

The 2nd edition of QAI Accreditation Standards for Assisted Reproductive Technology (ART) Centres have been issued on 9 November 2024.

All the applicant and accredited ART centres are requested to note the following transition plan:

- a. QAI will start accepting application as per 2nd edition from 1st January 2025
- b. New applications as per the 1st edition will only be accepted till 31st March 2025.
- c. New applications received before 1st January 2025 and paid the application fee will have the option to undergo assessment either as per 1st edition or 2nd edition.
- d. Application for renewal of accreditation received before 31st March 2025 will have the option to undergo assessment either as per 1st edition or 2nd edition.
- e. All types of assessments (final, surveillance, renewal) will be conducted as per the 2nd edition after 1st August 2025.
- f. All accredited organisations should comply with the 2nd edition latest by 31st December 2025 demonstrated either through assessment or self-assessment.

All the applicants and accredited ART centres are requested to extend their support for a smooth transition to the 2nd edition. ART centres may like to get in touch with the QAI Secretariat for any clarification needed.

I also take this opportunity to wish all our partners a very Happy New Year 2025.

With regards,

(Dr. Bhupendra Kumar Rana)
